Last year in review

Last year, The Children's Center continued to deliver on its promise: providing high-quality, affordable early childhood education and care for families across our community. Together, we created meaningful impact in the lives of children, families, and the Lowcountry as a whole. I am proud to share a few of this year's accomplishments:

- More than 150 children received nurturing care and educational programming that lays the foundation for lifelong learning and success.
- Expanded tuition assistance opened our doors even wider, ensuring that financial barriers did not stand between children and a strong educational start.
- Graduating students mastered 97 percent of kindergarten readiness skills, according to South Carolina Early Learning Standards. This achievement reflects the dedication of our teachers and the resilience of our children.
- The Children's Center emerged as a key voice in regional early education, actively participating in the Lowcountry Early Childhood Coalition and the Beaufort-Jasper Self-Sufficiency Taskforce.
- A fully resurfaced playground, made possible through generous community support, created a safer and more engaging outdoor learning space for our children.
- Special programming in music, arts, and literature in partnership with Historic Mitchelville Freedom Park, the Coastal Discovery Museum, and the Sandbox provided enriching and memorable experiences beyond the classroom.
- Community partnerships flourished, with Give Back Days, the HHI Community Market, Hilton Head Realtors Association, Sunset Rotary and events with the Town of Hilton Head Island and the Island Rec Center raising vital funds and awareness for our mission.

- Hundreds of volunteer hours strengthened our work as caring individuals welcomed families, supported classrooms, and championed early childhood education.
- Above all, our dedicated staff continued to provide a safe, enriching, and loving environment where every child feels valued, supported, and inspired.

Each of these milestones reflects our community's generosity, belief in our mission, and commitment to the future of the Lowcountry's children. With this continued support, children in our community have a place to learn, grow, and thrive.

As we look ahead to the next year, we are excited to build on this momentum, opening our doors for more working families with a renewed focus on teacher recruitment. We remain committed to delivering high-quality early childhood education that builds a strong foundation for our children's future and our community's. When we invest in children, we invest in the future of our entire community.

Thank you for making all this possible!

Who We Serve

For 59 years, The Children's Center has remained steadfast in its mission to provide affordable and accessible early childhood education and childcare for working families in Beaufort and Jasper Counties. Today, we serve more than 100 families across the Lowcountry and are the only organization in our area that offers a sliding-scale tuition structure based on family income and size. This commitment ensures that every child, regardless of race, ethnicity, income level, or family makeup, can access the early learning experiences essential for kindergarten readiness.

More than two-thirds of the families we serve are considered low income, meaning their household income is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level. Our classrooms reflect the richness and diversity of our region. Approximately 36 percent of the children enrolled identify as Hispanic, 30 percent as Black, and the remaining children are Caucasian, Asian, or of mixed race and ethnicity. We currently serve 120 children, from infancy through eight years of age.

The diversity of our children and our staff creates a vibrant learning community that nurtures understanding and respect. This environment not only strengthens early learning but also lays the foundation for harmony and connection among future generations.
